

Shop 'til you drop

Shenandoah:

Known as the Garden City Shenandoah is the hub of southwest Iowa retail. Gift shops, apparel for the entire family and distinctive home decorating shops line the newly renovated downtown streetscape. Have lunch in an old train depot or former church sanctuary, their food is exceptional and locations nostalgic. A definite day trip.

Clarinda:

This quaint town of 5,900 is one of the prettiest in Iowa. A 20-block lighted boulevard circling the center of town is used extensively for walking and jogging. The 100 ft. wide "Promenade" was a unique feature of the original Clarinda platting. The Retail area circles the Page County Courthouse built in 1885. The community offers several restaurants, clothing stores and a unique green house at Henkeville, flower and gift shops.
